In co-operation with the Eberhard Karls University of Tübingen, the INPUT project is proposed by the ACLI – Selbsthilfewerk für interkulturelle Arbeit e. V., a non-profit association in Baden-Württemberg.

The ACLI, Italian Christian Workers Association, were born in 1944. They are an association of lay Christians who promotes the work and workers, educates and encourages active citizenship, protects, helps and supports people, particularly those who are in a position of exclusion or at risk of social exclusion.

As a responsible part of civil society the ACLI promote social development and the world's third sector: global citizenship, voluntary commitment as well as non-profit social entrepreneurship.

The ACLI currently has over 985.000 subscribers in Italy and abroad, some 8.100 local structures, including the 3.500 circles (clubs), 106 provincial and 21 regional offices. Each year the ACLI provides services to about 3,5 million people.

Today, the ACLI is present in almost 30 countries worldwide, with experience ancient and new initiatives. By the presence of Italian emigration (Europe, South Africa, Northern and South America, Australia), and the many long-established experiences of cooperation and social development in Brazil, Argentina, the Balkans (Kosovo, Bosnia Herzegovina, Albania) and Africa (Kenya and Mozambique).

acli.de ... in Germany

Since mid-1960s, the ACLI is present in Germany focusing its action on workers' education, vocational integration and education of young migrants as well as on the promotion of intercultural learning processes and transnational networking within European labour markets and societies.

... means innovation

ACLI services often have been successfully engaged in quite a number of innovative projects at local, regional, national and transnational levels. In the work of transnational partnerships and networks ACLI services are active, often with leading functions, since the 1980s.

some major activities

During the last years ACLI services have focused on the following activities:

- Mother-tongue teaching for and promotion of education of Italian children;
- Language courses for people with migration biography;
- Vocational education offers for long-term unemployed;
- Vocational counselling & guidance services for people with migration biography;
- Practical professional experience in Europe at home and abroad;
- Transnational pilot projects in the area of vocational education and improvement of employability;
- Networking activities, promotion of migrant organisations and local development;
- Research and services in the field of cross-border vocational adult education and lifelong learning.

- ... promoting digital competences

On federal and regional level ACLI services have developed a binational project family offering to young people with Italian, Croatian or Turkish migration biography along or after their vocational education and training pathways to enlarge and deepen their intercultural and international competences (including language abilities) by specific additional learning offers, internships in enterprises in Italy, Croatia or Turkey as well as specific and individual coaching. Trilingual certification is provided.

... some projects

REDshift (2009 – 2011): Transfer of innovation in the area of key competences in vocational education involving partners in Germany, Italy, Romania and Spain.

PAME (2009 – 2010): Transfer of innovation in the area of youth policies and measures for young people threatened by social exclusion. Co-operation with partners in France, Italy, Portugal, Romania and Spain.

PIA (2009 – 2010): On the basis of a scientific survey in selected companies PIA provides a basis for raising awareness of human resource managers in SMEs and multipliers for the resource potential of older people with an immigrant background. The project faces age selective HR recruitment policies and encourages generative and multicultural diversity management in SMEs.

TIMSAP (2008 – 2010): Transfer of innovation in the field of home care and service occupations with partners in Germany, France, Italy, Portugal, Romania and Spain.

URU - Uči Upoznaj Radi (2007 – 2010): University students and aspiring professionals enhance their professional, technical language and cultural skills to provide an international dimension. Project organised by the Municipality of Zagreb involving partners in Germany and Croatia.

↻ INPUT

... areas of activities

On the basis of a many years experience in the promotion of employment and vocational working qualification among young and elderly people with and without migration background, the project ↻ INPUT participating partners are building a trans-regional and transnational network that is capable of a sustained impulse and of providing for innovative approaches to

- (a) the qualifications of unemployed migrants and
- (b) labour market policies and projects for the (re)integration of older unemployed (over 45) with and without migration background in the regular labour market.

acli.it

... areas of activities

The network supplies the resources and needs of specific target groups. Together with those directly affected and other local and transnational actors, as well as based on identified needs, transnational transferability of good practice should be examined and innovative qualification and employment measures should be developed and promoted.

An even better targeting of tools and processes on the resources and real needs of target groups is sought.

acli.de ... the objectives

In the context of a transnational innovation transfer, actions and measures should be conceived and tested taking into account the following detailed objectives:

- Local and community oriented measures to support especially older unemployed people with an immigrant background in promoting the city's anniversary and preparing the Landesgartenschau (campaign) (Werkhof Ost, Schwäbisch Gmünd);
- Specific measures in support of unemployed people with an immigrant background, with the help and the advanced training of mentors with and without a migration background (BBQ);
- Promoting the participation of migrant people, detecting the capabilities and the mediation obstacles and promoting self-directed tools to improve the employability of people with an immigrant background (ARCES e. V. and German Turkish Forum (DTF Stuttgart e. V.).
