

“Another learning is possible!” This slogan is going to be challenged by a team of social educators and workers, distributed among the cities of Schwaebisch Gmuend, Stuttgart and Tuebingen, being involved in work promotion of elderly people and young migrants. “We are convinced that we can learn from other countries, if we invite them seriously and let them touch our reality.” The project INPUT, sponsored by the State’s social ministry and the European Social Fund envisages a serious process of consultancy and coaching of well-defined job

INPUT
 innovative practice
 by useful transfer
innovative Praxis
 durch nützlichen Transfer promotion systems by quite different grass-roots’ experts coming from places spread over Europe. Our TANDEM PLUS partners play a significant role in methodology of transnational learning. More info: www.input-network.eu

